

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contact: Laura Sillars, Director of Marketing and Communications
504.585.0201, laura.sillars@arlaw.com

4/17/20

Former EEOC Attorney and Assistant U.S. Attorney Suntrease Williams-Maynard Joins Adams and Reese's Government Investigations and White Collar Defense Practice

MOBILE, Ala. — Adams and Reese is pleased to announce Suntrease Williams-Maynard has joined the firm's Mobile office as Special Counsel. Williams-Maynard joins the firm's Government Investigations and White Collar Defense Practice, where she adds considerable depth thanks to her experience as a prosecutor who has enforced compliance with federal statutes and successfully prosecuted thousands of cases. In her broad practice, Williams-Maynard focuses on helping clients minimize the risks of litigation, respond to government investigations and develop sound programs, policies and procedures.

Prior to joining Adams and Reese, Williams-Maynard served as a trial attorney for the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) in Mobile. Thanks to this experience, Williams-Maynard is well versed in labor and employment issues and federal employment discrimination statutes.

Williams-Maynard also served as Assistant U.S. Attorney for the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Alabama and the Southern District of Texas. She joined the U.S. Department of Justice through the Attorney General Honors program being one of 10 selected nationwide to serve at the U.S. Attorney's Office. Thanks to her experience in these roles, Williams-Maynard has worked closely with numerous federal agencies including the Border Patrol; Homeland Security Investigations; Drug Enforcement Administration; Customs and Border Protection; Federal Bureau of Investigation; U.S. Marshals Service; Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives; Department of State and Postal Inspectors. In addition to her service to the U.S. Attorneys' offices, Williams-Maynard is also an Assistant Staff Judge Advocate in the United States Air Force Reserve, carrying the rank of Captain.

"We are absolutely delighted to welcome Suntrease to the firm," said Tony Swafford, a leader of Adams and Reese's Government Investigations and White Collar Defense Team. "She brings She brings a wealth of experience from her tenure at the Department of Justice and in-depth familiarity with state and federal agencies in the area of enforcement. Suntrease is a great addition to our team and will be a valued resource to our clients."

Williams-Maynard is active in numerous civic and charitable efforts in the community and has been widely recognized for her leadership and excellence in law, public service and outreach efforts.

"I was taught at a young age, that to whom much is given; much is required," said Williams-Maynard. "Needless to say, I am eager to embark upon this new experience with the team of professionals at Adams and Reese. On this journey, I look forward to developing new relationships and nurturing existing connections."

Williams-Maynard holds a Master of Public Administration and a Graduate Certificate in Public Sector Human Resource Management from The Pennsylvania State University (2013), a J.D. from the North Carolina Central University School of Law (2008) and a B.A. in Sociology: Criminal Justice (2005), magna cum laude, from Shaw University.

ABOUT ADAMS AND REESE LLP

Adams and Reese (<http://www.adamsandree.com>) is a multidisciplinary law firm with nearly 300 attorneys and advisors strategically located throughout the southern United States and Washington, D.C. The American Lawyer includes Adams and Reese on its distinguished list of the nation's top law firms, the Am Law 200. The National Law Journal also includes the firm among the top 200 on the NLJ 500 list of the nation's largest law firms.